

Empower People! Save Wildlife!

Photo credit: J. Bankson

UNDERSTANDING LIFE

Our cutting-edge empirical studies in biological and social sciences promote the harmonious coexistence of human and wildlife populations that share Earth's critical habitats.

Photo credit: V. T. Bui

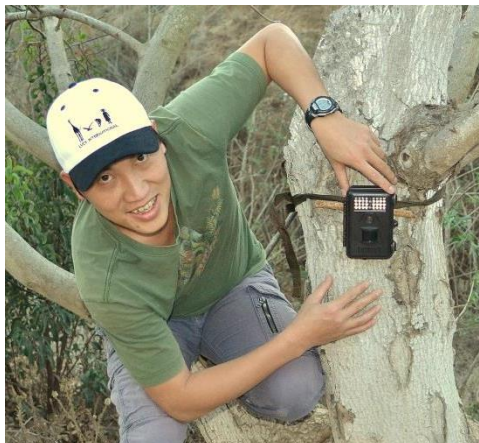

LVDI International Inc. is a U.S. 501(c)(3) public charity dedicated to preserving biological diversity on Earth. Our mission is to inspire and empower people to protect nature, and our vision is a healthy planet wherein humans are responsible stewards of Earth's natural resources. We are a volunteer-led organization with a global presence. Currently, our teams of experts are delivering local conservation impact in Asia, Africa and North America. Through our Science, Education and Sustainability programs, we have affected positive changes in the lives of over a million adults and children worldwide.

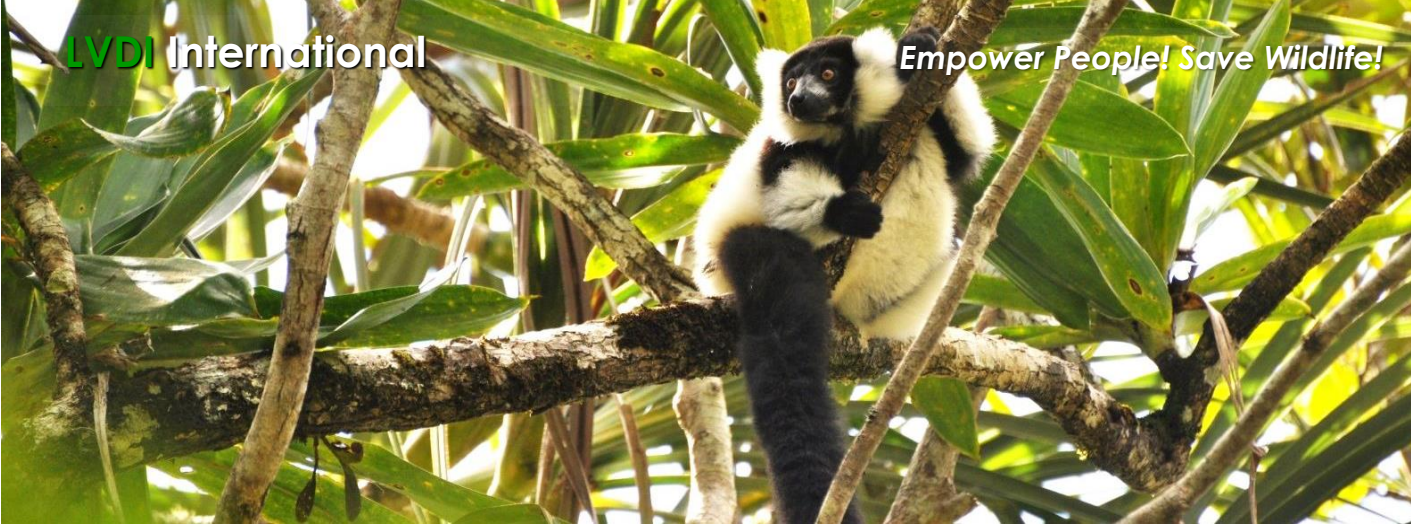

INSPIRING HEARTS & MINDS

Our educational activities foster appreciation for and understanding of nature in adults and children, resulting in their connection with and better stewardship of the natural world around them.

EMPOWERING INDIVIDUALS & COMMUNITIES

Our talent-maximizing efforts develop local capacity and strengthen the commitment of individuals and communities to continuously seek conservation solutions from within.

SCIENCE

From China to Vietnam, Madagascar to the DR Congo, we have contributed to conservation science through multidisciplinary research studies, and transfer of knowledge, skills and technology.

EDUCATION

From our Little Green Guards® conservation lessons to storybooks and magazines, we have boosted learning and care of nature in youth through curriculum development and implementation.

SUSTAINABILITY

From professional development and mentoring programs to rural enterprises, we have created life-changing individual successes and achieved lasting conservation gains through workshops, one-on-one guidance and seed grants.

LVDI International Inc.

+1 760 909 7067

info@lvdiinternational.org

<https://lvdiinternational.org/>

